DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed March 19, 2008, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 5 and 8 under 35 USC 103 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of US Application Publication 2005/0053040.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 5 and 8 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Choi et al (US Application Publication 2005/0053040).

Claim 5.

Choi et al discloses a method of detecting a voice frame (see Fig.4), comprising;

decoding (107) the voice frame for each of a plurality of possible transmission rates, computing CRC for each rate (109) and a mean absolute LLR value for each rate (111) and determining (115) the transmission rate for the voice frame based on the mean absolute LLR value.

See also Fig.4 and related descriptions.

Claim 8.

See paragraph [0010] describing different rates in multiples.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-4,9-15 are allowed.
5. Claims 6 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
